THIS Indenture, &c. Between the Right Honourable M. Viscountess Dowager of L. of the one Part, and G. F. of, &c. Esq; of the other Part. Whereas by Indentures of Lease and Release, &c. and made, &c. previous to the Intermarriage of the said Viscountess with the said now Lord Viscount L. a Rent Charge of 320 l. a Year was granted and settled by and of the Name of, &c. and also by and out of the Manor of, &c. in the County of R. in the said Kingdom, of the then Estate of Sir G. L. Knt. unto the said Viscountess for and during the Term of her natural Life, for her Jointure, As in and by the said in Part, &c. And whereas the said Marriage took Effect, and the said J. Lord Viscount L. since departed this Life, whereby the Lady Viscountess became lawfully intitled to the said Rent Charge or Annuity of 320 l. per Ann. for her Life, for her Jointure, by Virtue of and under the said Marriage Settlement; but the said Lord Viscount L. before his Death, duly made and published his last Will and Testament in Writing, and thereby (inter alia) devised the said Manor of, &c. and all Arrears of Rent due out of all the aforesaid Manors and Premises, to the said M. Viscountess Dowager of L. for and during the Term of her natural Life, with several Remainders over, as in the said Will is mentioned, and appointed her sole Executrix of his said Will, who has since his Decease duly proved the same in common Form, and thereby became well intitled, not only to all and every the said Manors and Premises so devised to her as aforesaid, and to all the Rents and Profits thereof, from the Decease of the said J. Lord Viscount L. for and during the Term of her natural Life, but also to all and every the Arrears of Rent which remained due and owing from the same Premises, from the respective Tenants thereof, to and at the Time of the Decease of the said Lord Viscount L. as by the said Will and Probate thereof, Relation, &c. And whereas the said G. F. claiming to be intitled to the said Manors and Premises in the said recited Deeds and Will mentioned, by Virtue of the last Will and Testament of G. late Lord Viscount L. deceased, (Father of the said J. Lord Viscount L.) did as of Michaelmas Term, which was in the Year of our Lord 1726, bring his Ejectments in his Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Ireland, by A. M. Esq; his feigned Lessee, against the said M. Lady Viscountess Dowager of L. and the several Tenants in Possession of and for Recovery of all the said Manors and Premises, and the said M. Lady Viscountess Dowager of L. having appeared and made Defence to the said Ejectments, the same came to be tried in the said Court of Exchequer before the Barons of the same Court in Michaelmas Term, which was in the Year — whereupon a special Verdict was found by the Jury that tried the said Ejectments, which special Verdict is still depending and undetermined in the said Court: And whereas the said Jointure or Rent-Charge of 320 l. a Year of her the said M. Lady Viscountess Dowager of L. and also the Arrears of Rent that were due out of the same to the said J. Lord Viscount L. to and at the Time of his Death, and were and are unquestionable and out of Dispute; the only Question upon the said Trial was and is, in whom the Right of the said Manors and Premises, subject to the said yearly Rent-Charges and Arrears of Rent to the said M. Lady &c. was and is: And whereas for preventing Losses that may happen to be sustained by the Failing or Insolvency of any of the Tenants in Possession of the said Lands and Premises in Question, and in Regard the same Lands and Premises lie in several Counties, and at a great Distance and asunder from each other in the said Kingdom of Ireland; it is apprehended much for the Benefit and Conveniency of both the said contending Parties, that a Receiver or Collector of the Rents and Profits of the same Estates, should be appointed to collect and receive the same from the several Tenants of the same Estates and Premises, and to let and set the same at the best and utmost yearly Rent or Rents, in such Manner as herein after mentioned and agreed upon; to the End that the said M. Lady, &c. may have and receive thereout from such Receiver in the first Place, not only the future Payment of the said Rent-Charge or Annuity of 320 l. a Year, and Arrears thereof, and (after Payment of the said Rent-Charge and Arrears to the said M. Lady, &c. as aforesaid,) by such Receiver or Collector, from Time to Time, by the mutual Consent and Approbation of the said M. Lady, &c. and G. F. the Remainder of the said Arrears and Rents to be received, are to be paid into the Bank of England, in the Joint Names of the said M. Lady, &c. and G. F. or lodged in the Hands of such Person or Persons as they shall direct and appoint, for the Use and Benefit of such of them, as in the Event of the said Suit shall appear to be intitled thereto; And for that and other Purposes, it has been agreed and concluded by and between the said Parties to these Presents, in the Manner herein after mentioned: Now this Indenture witnesseth, that in Pursuance of the said Agreements, and to and for the Reasons, Ends and Intents, herein before and herein after mentioned and declared, It is hereby mutually covenanted, declared, concluded and agreed upon, by and between the Parties to these Presents, for themselves, their Heirs, Executors and Administrators respectively in Manner and Form following, viz. That the said M. Lady, &c. and the said G. F. do by these Presents consent and agree, and do hereby nominate, impower and appoint H. H. of Dublin in the Kingdom of Ireland, Esq; to collect and receive all such Arrears of Rent as were due and payable, by and out of all and singular Manors, Lands and Premises in Question, of and from the several Tenants thereof, to and at the Time of the Death of the said J. Lord Viscount L. and also all the Arrears of Rent of the said Premises, which have accrued due and payable since his Decease, and all the future growing Rents thereof; And also to let and set the same Lands and Premises from Time to Time, at the best accustomed yearly Rent that can be gotten for the same; And that the said H. H. shall have such yearly Salary or Allowance for Collecting and Receiving the said Rents and Arrears thereof, and shall give his own Personal Security for his faithful Behaviour in such Receivership, as the said M. Lady, &c. and G. F. shall from Time to Time mutually think fit and approve of; And also that the said H. H. shall from Time to Time, and at the End of every Half-Year, during the Time of his Receivership, give and deliver unto the said M. Lady, &c. and *G. Rules for placing the Parcels.

First, The more worthy Things must be put first, as a Castle before a Manor, a Manor before a Messuage, a Messuage before Land, and Land before Meadow, &c. Placing Parcels.

How Things are to be excepted in the Præcipe.

Berks, to wit. Command A. B. C. D. and E. F. that justly, &c. to G. H. and J. K. the Covenant made between them of, &c. And unless, &c.

Concord.

And the Agreement is such, (that is to say) That the said A. But it is most usual and best in Case of divers Conusors to let them warrant severally, as follows :

 And moreover the said A. hath granted for himself and his Heirs, that he will warrant the Tenements aforesaid, with the Appurtenances, to the aforesaid G. and J. and the Heirs of the said G. against the said A. and his Heirs for ever. And further the said C. hath granted for himself and his Heirs, that he will warrant the Tenements aforesaid, with the Appurtenances, to the aforesaid G. and J. and the Heirs of the said G. against him the said C. and his Heirs for ever. And also, the said E. hath granted for himself and his Heirs, that he will warrant the Tenements aforesaid, with the Appurtenances, to the aforesaid G. and J. and the Heirs of the said G. against him the said E. and his Heirs for ever. And for this, &c.

A several Warranty by each Conusor.

N. B. If there be two or more Conusees, who are Joint Purchasors, the Grant and Warranty must be to them and their Heirs, instead of the Heirs of one of them; as in the preceding Precedent from One to Two.

A Fine by Baron and Feme of the Husband's Lands.

And the Agreement is such, (that is to say) That the said A. and C. have acknowledged the aforesaid Tenements, with the Appurtenances, to be the Right of him the said D. as those which the said D. hath of the Gift of the said A. and C. and these they have remised and quit-claimed from them the said A. and C. and the Heirs of the said C. to the said D. and his Heirs for ever. And moreover the said A. and C. have granted for themselves, and the Heirs of the said C. that they will warrant to the aforesaid D. and his Heirs, the aforesaid Tenements, with the Appurtenances, against them the said A. and C. and the Heirs of the said C. for ever. And for this, &c.

Warranty against the Wife and her Heirs.

When a Fine is from divers, the Fine is supposed to be in one of them only, and if so, the Grant and Warranty should be from him or her, and against his or her Heirs; but if it is not certain, whether the Fee is in the Husband or Wife, it is best, for greater Certainty, to make a Warranty to Bar the Husband and his Heirs, and another to Bar the Wife and her Heirs, as in the next Precedent.

Gent. and K. his Wife, that justly, &c. to L. M. the Covenant made between them of ten Messuages, &c. with the Appurtenances in W. and Y. And unless, &c.

And the Agreement is such, (that is to say) That the said A. C. E. and G. his Wife, H. and K. his Wife, have acknowledged the aforesaid Tenements, Common and Liberty, with the Appurtenances, to be the Right of him the said L. as those which the said L. hath of the Gift of the said A. C. E. and G. and H. and K. and those they have remised and quit-claimed from them the said A. C. E. and G. and H. and K. and their Heirs, to the said L. and his Heirs for ever. And moreover the said A. hath granted for himself and his Heirs, that he will warrant to the aforesaid L. and his Heirs, the aforesaid Tenements, Common and Liberty, with the Appurtenances, against him the said A. and his Heirs for ever. And further the said C. hath granted for himself and his Heirs, that he will warrant to the aforesaid L. and his Heirs, the aforesaid Tenements, Common and Liberty, with the Appurtenances, against him the said C. and his Heirs for ever, And also the said E. and G. have granted for themselves, and the Heirs of the said E. that they will warrant to the aforesaid L. and his Heirs, the aforesaid Tenements, Common and Liberty, with the Appurtenances, against them the said E. and G. and the Heirs of the said E. for ever. And furthermore the said H. and K. have granted for themselves, and the Heirs of the said K. that they will warrant to the aforesaid L. and his Heirs, the aforesaid Tenements, Common and Liberty, with the Appurtenances, against them the said H. and K. and the Heirs of the said K. for ever. And for this, &c.

Concord.

1. Warranty.

2. Warranty.

3. Warranty.

4. Warranty.

N. B. As the Warranty should be always against that Person, and his or her Heirs, from whom or from whose Ancestors the Lands came or descended; so here the Husband is supposed to be a Person from whom the Lands moved, and therefore the Warranty is against him and his Heirs; and here the Wife is supposed to be the Person, and therefore the Warranty here is against her and her Heirs. But in Case there is any Doubt from whom, the Husband and Wife may be made to warrant severally, as in the last Precedent.

—by Three Conufors and the Wives of two of them to Two Conufees, upon two Writs of Covenant, the Lands lying in two Counties, first of Messuages, Lands, Pasture, Wood, &c. in Kent, second of Messuages, Cottages, Land, Furze and Heath, in Essex.

Kent, to wit. Command A. B. Esq; and C. his Wife, D. E. Esq; and F. his Wife, and G. H. that justly, &c. to J. K. and L. M. the Covenant made between them of six Messuages, five hundred Acres of Land, three hundred Acres of Pasture, and fifty Acres of Wood and Common of Pasture for all Cattle, with the Appurtenances in N. and O. And unless, &c.

Essex, to wit. Command A. B. Esq; and C. his Wife, D. E. Esq; and F. his Wife, and G. H. that justly, &c. to J. K. and L. M. the Covenant made between them of four Messuages, ten Cottages, one hundred Acres of Land, and fifty Acres of Furze and Heath, with the Appurtenances in P. and Q. And unless, &c.

And

Concord.

And the Agreement is such, (that is to say) That the said A. and C. D. and F. and G. have acknowledged the aforesaid Tenements, and Common of Pasture, with the Appurtenances, to be the Right of the said J. as those which the said J. and L. have of the Gift of the said A. and C. D. and F. and G. and these they have remised and quit-claimed from the said A. and C. D. and

1. Warranty. F. and G. and their Heirs, to the said J. and L. and the Heirs of the said J. for ever. And moreover the said A. and C. have granted for themselves, and the Heirs of the said C. that they will warrant to the said J. and L. and the Heirs of the said J. the aforesaid Tenements and Common of Pasture, with the Appurtenances, against them the said A. and C. and the
2. Warranty. Heirs of the said C. for ever. And further the said D. and F. have granted for themselves and the Heirs of the said F. that they will warrant to the said J. and L. and the Heirs of the said J. the aforesaid Tenements, and Common of Pasture, with the Appurtenances, against
3. Warranty. them the said D. and F. and the Heirs of the said F. for ever. And also the said G. hath granted for himself and his Heirs, that he will warrant to the aforesaid J. and L. and the Heirs of the said J. the aforesaid Tenements and Common of Pasture, with the Appurtenances, against him the said G. and his Heirs for ever. And for this, &c.

N. B. Where the Lands lie in three or more Counties, there must be several Præcipes to distinguish what Lands lie in each County, and but one Concord, as above.

One may conceive by this last Precedent, that C. and F. are two Sisters, who join in this Fine with their Husband, and G. their Brother, and therefore, may be supposed to be the Persons from whose Ancestors the Lands came, and the Warranties are therefore against their Heirs, and the Heirs of G. their Brother.

The Grant and Warranties are made to J. and his Heirs, who one may conceive to be the Purchaser, and that L. is joined in the Fine in Pursuance of some Trust or Covenant, in the Purchase Deeds; had they been joint Purchasers, the Grant and Warranty would have been to them and their Heirs; — as in the Precedent from One to Two.
